CURRIES High Definition 1-Panel Embossed Door

The CURRIES High Definition 1-Panel embossed door proves that a steel door does not have to be dull. The sharp panel radius along with increased shadow detail makes the CURRIES HD 1-Panel door a clear choice in adding elegance to any opening. The distinct design gives a room or entrance a look of sophistication. Which is perfect for condominiums, assisted living complexes, hotels, office buildings, and dormitories.

The beauty of this product is not just skin deep. Underneath the exterior skins is an energy efficient polyurethane core making this work of art a solution to today's building designs. The CURRIES HD 1-Panel doors can be fire rated up to 3 hours (UL10C). Design, durability, and energy efficiency makes the CURRIES HD 1-panel door a cost effective alternative to stile and rail wood doors.
